

Required Minimum Distribution Waived for 2009

Press Release

On December 23, 2008, President Bush signed into law the Worker, Retiree and Employer Recovery Act of 2008.

This legislation affects individuals who are taking required minimum distributions for the 2009 year. The Act states that the minimum required distributions otherwise due for 2009 under IRC §401 (a)(9) may be waived for the following types of plans:

- Qualified retirement plans
- IRA's

Required minimum distribution payments for 2010 must resume for all plans.
